THE V.A. HOT SPRINGS.

The Season Opened at the Famous and Attractive Resort.

HEALTH - GIVING WATER.

The Springs Celebrated for Their Healing Properties—Beautiful Scenery Met Along the Line of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad.

HOT SPRINGS, VA., July 12.—Here, in the lap of the Appalachian mountains, which tower 4,000 feet above the sea, we are just beginning to realize what summer in the Hot Springs Valley means.
The season at this resort has just opened, but the influx of visitors from all sections of the country, and especially that which lies to our north, gives assurance that there will be no dearth of life and gaiety at the springs during the heated term. Now, that pleasure-seekers and invalids are landed at the springs in through railroad-cars, a new era in the history of the valley has begun. Suffering humanity is no longer barred out by almost impassable mountains. This valley, beautiful and wonderful, one of the greatest bounties of a beneficent Providence, is at last open to all the world.
The altitude of the valley (2,500 feet) and its protection by the surrounding mountains from wind-storms and sudden changes, combine to produce a temperature safe in winter, mild in spring, and cool in summer, and delightful in the fall.
The humidity so often experienced in mountain regions is here unknown, fog and mists are rarely seen, and the clear, dry air is laden with invigorating ozone.
RICHLY COLORED.
The scenery of the valley is richly colored, bold, and picturesque—a vision of beauty from end to end. The forests and meadows, cliffs and caverns, cascades and brooks, rugged mountains, and pleasing pastures, a beautiful flora, abundant game, fish in great variety, and rivers and rivulets are all at hand to gratify every whim of the pleasure-seeker. The visitor can drive or ride for miles over boulevards and carefully-constructed drives, mountain roads, and bridge paths, through a region everywhere attractive, and affording successions of constantly-changing views not excelled by any scenery in the Appalachian mountains. The views from Flag Rock, on the eastern mountain summit, are of the grandest in the world, limited only by the horizon, the eye sweeps in every direction over a sea of mountain ranges. Westward, looking over the deep, winding valley of Jackson river, one of the attributes of the historic James, capped with towering peaks and buttressed by innumerable spurs, is seen the great central range of the Ap-palachians.

HEALING PROPERTIES.

The healing and curative properties of the hot waters flowing from these springs have been established by the experience of a century, and eminent physicians have repeatedly expressed the opinion that they rank with the most effective and the most celebrated thermal waters in the world. They are especially effeccious in cases of gout, rheumatism in all its forms, paralysis, scrofula, impurities of the blood, affections of the digestive canal, diseases of the liver and portal system, old injuries to the muscles and joints, enlarged glands and joints, dis-cases of the kidneys and bladder, urethral stricture, neuralgia, and diseases of the nervous system (especially sciatica), spinal irritation, chronic ulcers, diseases of the skin, and all disorders peculiar to women.

The drinking waters are of great variety; besides the Hot Springs there are the widely-known magnesia, sulphur, and soda springs within the grounds, and the alum water from a spring upon another tract of the company's land.
Particular attention is called to the alum water, which, by chemical analysis, is shown to be fully equal to the very best four in this country, and is highly recommended for the cure of persons suffering from chronic diarrhoea or dysentery, scrofula, inflammation of the bowels, dyspepsia, etc., and is also, by reason of the amount of iron it contains, highly esteemed as a tonic and restorative.
Located within easy distance of the hotels and cottages, the patient finds no inconvenience in going to the several springs and drinking the water upon return from the earth. The effects are marked and pronounced, and the soda spring has come into quite general use as a table water. In addition to beneficial effects in troubles mentioned above, this water has given excellent results in the cure of diseases of the kidneys and bladder, and patients suffering from chronic Bright's disease in advanced stages have found great relief in its use in connection with the hot baths.

THE BATH-HOUSE.
The bath-house is a splendid four-story structure of stone and brick, costing over $150,000, appropriately built in the Colonial style of architecture, from plans made after studying the best designs, and adapted to the special condition of the springs and grounds. All of the appointments are of the finest order and second to none in the country.
Large, well-furnished, resting-rooms for ladies and gentlemen, separately, are provided on each floor, and on the upper floor, reached by the grand stairway and by a commodious elevator, is the solarium, a large, comfortable hall in which patients can rest and enjoy sun-baths, or congregate for pleasure or social intercourse. Adjoining it is a gymnasium, supplied with every necessary appliance.
The temperature of the building and its ventilation in every part is in perfect command, and assures fresh, dry air or constant temperature in all seasons and in all conditions of weather.

Hot springs are distributed to the bathing apartments of different floors, fresh from the ground, without loss of natural heat or its increase by artificial means, and they are charged with all their gases.
A great variety of baths are given, and the bath can have any temperature he desires, from a cold plunge to 108 degrees Fahrenheit. The spout bath has been the favorite, and is entitled to the credit of the greater part of the thousands of cures that have been effected.

COMFORTABLE APARTMENTS.
Apartments are arranged in the most comfortable and agreeable manner for hot air or hot vapor baths, with tepid or cold plunge, needle, spray, showers, douches of all kinds, electric, medicated, and other baths. Every bath-room opens into two furnished apartments, giving bathers ample time for rest and dressing, and affording every facility for massage treatment, which is made a special feature and given under the most skillful and scientific directions. The house is fitted up with rooms and all proper appliances for inhalation, nasal douches, etc.
Hot springs has splendid hotels under the management of Colonel Fred. Sterry, a most efficient, able, and successful hotel man.

The Homestead, a charming hotel of the true old Colonial style, looks down a terraced greenward upon the vaporous springs in the lawn below. Remodelled, renovated, and modernized, but preserving features which maintain its charm and which interest to it, the venerable old building, with the home-like cottages which surround it, will be kept distinctively for summer patronage. Adjacent to the Homestead are the lately remodelled dormitory and Goode Hall, containing desirable apartments for guests, so situated as to secure peace and quiet to such as may desire to be removed from the bustle of the hotel.

THE NEW HOTEL.

The Virginia, a new hotel, provided with every modern comfort and convenience, with wide corridors and spacious sun-lit rooms, all elegantly furnished, supplied with electric-light and heated by steam with fire-grates for those who prefer them, other physicians practicing at Hot Springs are Dr. H. S. Fole and Dr. P. P.
Parish.

The stable connected with the hotels has a full supply of well-trained saddle-horses for ladies and gentlemen, and turnouts of all styles and kinds can be had.
Tennis-courts, bowling-alleys, billiards, and pool accommodations afford ladies and gentlemen delightful recreation. Excellent music on the lawn morning and noon, while the casino at night is the rendezvous of the belles and beaux.

PECULIAR CHARM.

No other line spanning the territory between the Atlantic ocean and the Central States can compare with the Chesapeake and Ohio in the wealth of scenic attractions, as it is undoubtedly the most beautiful line of equal length in America.
Every portion of the route possesses its peculiar and individual charms. One, because the traveller views a land history as a place where the hardy colonist first strive to gain a foothold in the New World; where the primeval savage was first overcome; where the life and manners of the mother country found their closest counterpart, and where the great leader of the greatest movement for freedom the world has ever known were born and raised the cry of liberty. Another, because it has been the theatre of two wars, the meeting-place between great armies, the memory of whose battles, and which as long history itself, and a third, because it gives the traveller glimpses and broad views of mountain scenery unsurpassed anywhere on the American continent for picturesque beautifulness and startling grandeur.

Do Not Postpone.

We urgently advise purchasers who contemplate buying a Piano or Organ in the near future not to delay further under the expectation of getting a great bargain in the future as they can now get in that line. Our sales from the R. B. Lee stock, bought about two months ago by deceit of court, have gone far beyond our expectations. An early call may secure one of these bargains to you, which, if you delay, you will miss. Call or write at once.

MET TERRIBLE DEATH

STORE IN COVINGTON DESTROYED
BY INCENDIARY FIRE.

The Owner Found Dead and Terribly Burned—Thought She Had Lost Her Money—A Pathetic Sight—
Other Attempts at Incendiarism.

CLIFTON FORGE, VA., July 13.—(Special.)—The J. A. Ford two-story iron-front brick building on Main street was gutted by fire this morning, and the owner, who lived on the second floor, lost his life.
The fire, which was of incendiary origin, broke out a few minutes past 2 o'clock on the first floor, which was the grocery store of R. M. Motley. The store contained a stock of goods worth $150, on which there was no insurance. On the second floor were the dental rooms of Dr. W. H. Savage.

Mr. Motley was awakened from his sleep by a dense smoke that filled the room. He jumped from his window to the ground, fully 20 feet, after firing his revolver several times to attract the attention of Mr.
Ford, whose room was on the same floor.

FOUND DEAD.

The firemen had been at work nearly half an hour when they discovered the dead body of Mr. Ford beneath the window of his room. It was terribly burned, the flesh being burned off of the feet, hands, and shoulders.
On the first floor in rear of the grocery was E. A. Sneed's cigar factory, of which the stock is practically a total loss, it being ruined by water.

The new dress of the Dispatch has been much complimented by its readers here.
The paper is a favorite in this valley, and holds first place among our people.

A PATHETIC SIGHT.

The woman, half clad, mingled in the crowd loudly bemoaning her loss. It was a most pathetic sight. At a later hour it was found that some person had placed the grip-sack in a trunk removed from the building, and her treasure was recovered. The poor woman was greatly prostrated by her thrilling experience.
The wife of Mr. Glass, an invalid, is also suffering from the sudden breaking up of her home.

THE DEAD MAN.

Mr. Ford was a bachelor, about 60 years of age, and was one of the most useful men in our town. He was a most efficient member of the Town Council that went out of office on the 1st of July, and was a ruling elder in the Presbyterian church. His death, so sudden and untimely, is greatly lamented by all our citizens. He had intended to go to Old Point Comfort this morning for two or three weeks, and would have left on train No. 2, which passes this point at midnight, but for his great dislike for night travel.

tra night police force, with private watchmen on duty.

The body of Mr. Ford will be to-morrow taken for burial to Collierstown, Rock-bridge county, where he has a brother and sister living.

WARM SPRINGS VALLEY

A Great Revival—The Resorts Rapidly Filling Up.

WARM SPRINGS, VA., July 13.—(Special.)—Mr. J. F. Reid, of Norfolk, is visiting the family of Judge J. W. Warwick, at "Warwickton."
Miss Irene Hopkins, daughter of Dr.
B. F. Hopkins, is at home for her vacation. She has been engaged the past winter as a trained nurse in Philadelphia.
Dr. Chertsey Hopkins, the lady physician at the Western State Hospital, Stanton, reached here to-day to spend some time with relatives at her old home.

Mr. William H. Shumate, wife of Judge Shumate, of Caldwell, W. Va., is a visitor on the river.
Mr. L. H. Stephenson, of Monterey, Va., is spending some days with his brother at this place.

Rev. James P. Smith, D. D., of your city, is expected to assist the Presbyterian pastor here during the month of August.

Rev. T. H. Lacy, D. D., the Episcopal evangelist, began Thursday a series of religious meetings, morning and evening, in Christ's church.

A GREAT REVIVAL.

What is perhaps the greatest religious meeting ever held in that portion of the country is now being conducted at Woodland church, near Bath Alum, by the evangelist, Mr. G. W. Argabrite, assisted by Rev. W. H. Groves and Rev. F. E.
Robbins, of Winty Cove church. The place of worship has been for about one week inadequate to seating or even furnish standing room for the large crowds attending the services from the Millboro' Valley. Up to this time there have been over sixty conversions, and the interest is deepening. Mr. Argabrite has his wife and child with him. They are from Lynchburg.

much complimented by its readers here.
holds first place among our people.

Mrs. John G. Carlisle, wife of the Secretary, was a guest at the Hot Springs for a few days this week.

MANY GUESTS.

The season at this latter resort is coming up fully to the expectations of the manager and patrons. There are now about 200 guests quartered in the two hotels and their cottages, and the arrivals number between fifteen and twenty each day. Mr. McLaughlin, formerly clerk at the Virginia Hotel, has been installed as manager of the "Homestead," which is now nearly full.

Dr. F. W. Chapin, resident physician, who is now absent on a visit to Connecticut, will be gone about two months, instead of one month, as he anticipated.
Dr. C. W. Brandt is attending to the health of the Hot and Warm Springs in Dr. Chapin's absence.

There are thirty-five or forty guests at Warm Springs, with daily additions. A good number is expected in next week, and a full house by the 1st of August, when the rush begins.

B. Y. P. U. A. CONVENTION.

Baltimore, Md., July 15 to 21, 1895.

Baptist Young People's Union of America.

Agent, Southern Railway, 329 east Main street.

Highland Park and Chestnut Hill.

At a meeting of the North-Hills Citizens' Association, held in their hall this day, the following preamble and resolutions were presented and adopted in reference to the death of Mr. John H. Yarbrough: Whereas it has pleased to God to remove from our midst by the hand of an assassin our associate and fellow-worker, John H.
Yarbrough, we, as an association, desire to express to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathies and to show our appreciation of the merits of our dear friend; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the sudden demise of our friend and brother this association, as well as the entire community, has sustained a deep loss.

Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathies, trusting their submission to the will of Him whose wisdom is far greater than ours.

Resolved, That these simple words of sympathy and respect be spread upon our minutes and a copy be sent to the family.
